Once and for all— the missing answers.

Here, in 622 galvanic pages, a brilliant journalist does what the Warren Commission Report and its 26 supporting volumes failed to do satisfactorily.

He explains Lee Harvey Oswald's motives, and finally puts together all the links in the extraordinary psychological chain. What's more, he produces evidence the Commission either overlooked accidentally or didn't understand.

His book is the first to reveal not only exactly how the crime was committed, but why.

His conclusions are electrifying.

THE ASSASSINATION OF JOHN F. KENNEDY

The Reasons Why
